

Angels to the Animals Volunteer Waiver & Release of Liability

I acknowledge that volunteering with Angels to the Animals, Inc. (“AttA”) involves inherent risks including but not limited to:

- Animal bites and scratches
- Exposure to zoonotic disease
- Animal behavioral unpredictability
- Physical injury from handling animals or equipment
- Transportation risks
- Emotional stress associated with rescue work

I voluntarily assume all risks associated with my participation as a volunteer.

I agree to release, waive, discharge, and hold harmless Angels to the Animals, Inc., its directors, officers, agents, representatives, and volunteers from any and all claims, liabilities, damages, or expenses arising from my volunteer activities, including those arising from negligence, to the fullest extent permitted by North Carolina law.

I understand and agree that:

- I am not an employee and am not covered by workers’ compensation or employment benefits.
- I am responsible for my own medical insurance and medical expenses.
- AttA may obtain emergency medical treatment on my behalf if I am unable to consent.
- AttA may terminate my volunteer relationship at any time.
- Donations or materials provided become the property of AttA.
- I will follow all safety policies and organizational procedures.
- I grant permission for my image or likeness to be used by AttA without compensation.
- I will maintain confidentiality regarding sensitive organizational information.

This agreement shall be governed by the laws of the State of North Carolina.
If any provision is deemed unenforceable, the remaining provisions shall remain in full force.
